Re: Didactic Stuffed Rabbits With Printed Messages
Docket No. 21321.00
Serial No 10/695,157

Dear Mr. Suhol:

Since I have invested in excess of seven thousand with the Litman Law Firm in an attempt to obtain a patent on this toy, my funds are almost exhausted. I have spent over five hundred dollars having the actual animal manufactured in China so I would have something to market. My plan for years has been to have this toy manufactured and set up some kind of foundation for homeless children with a portion of the proceeds. I know this could become a reality. If you would allow me to send you pictures of the actual animal, you would see that it is not like the illustrations included in the patent rejection.

I realize that I am asking the impossible for you to reconsider this, but I have so much of my time, money, and prayers invested already that I would ask you to please look at the information that I have.

I can be reached at 903-628-2428 by telephone or the above mailing address. My fax number is the same as the above number.

Yours truly,

Peggy Dear
